“Hi” Notes

ISSUE 24

Summer 2016

President's Message

Hello DVO members:

Over the summer your DVO Board Members have been meeting to keep the DVO moving forward. In reviewing the DVO Registration Document I was amazed and reminded that there are 17 Volunteer working committees. Each of these committees has dedicated volunteer leaders. I encourage all DVO members to support their orchestra by getting involved in their very important work. Laura Thomas has been a key leader and behind the scenes supporter of all things DVO. Thanks Laura.

With the assistance of Alicia, our Treasurer, we were able to order 10 new Manhasset Music Stands and their accompanying storage carts. This means a more organized storage area and an easier set up and take down for the rehearsals. Alicia is also putting the finishing touches on a $23,000 Trillium Grant Instrument order. We hope to have the majority of these new instruments, such as a double bass, for our September start up. Jim Jones, Olga Hencher, Alicia Hutchings and Laura Thomas responded very quickly to an early date for the “Dougher Grant” application for which their efforts were rewarded with a $5,700 grant! I present this information to you so that you will appreciate the excellent work done on an ongoing basis for the DVO on your behalf by our volunteers.

Of course the main focus of the DVO is to perform and promote music while encouraging our orchestra members to continually improve. You can see the benefits under the leadership of our Music Director, Laura Thomas.

Music Director's Message

Hello musicians of the DVO,

It's just about time to start another DVO season! I hope that it was a good summer for all of you and that you're ready for the fall schedule of rehearsals and performances.

I'm really looking forward to this season. The first concert is “Spotlight on Dundas” and will be a wonderfully eclectic blend of music from the baroque to contemporary original rock. It will feature DVO composers and Dundas area musicians – an excellent DVO contribution to Arts Dundas Weekend.

The second concert has a movie theme and will also be a blend, this time of standard orchestra repertoire and more modern film music. Schubert's Symphony No. 8, “The Unfinished” will be the main piece on the program. As we did with Dvorak last season, we will start work on the symphony in September so we have lots of time to polish it for January.

The final concert will be a celebration of Canada's Sesquicentennial. It will feature lots of well known and lesser known Canadian works and a fantastic soloist, flutist Douglas Miller. There will be lots more information coming about that concert as the fall progresses.

We'll also be presenting the retirement home concerts, welcoming a young HAALSA soloist, learning a young composer's piece to premiere, as well as a possible performance with Mohawk College soloists (still in preliminary planning).

in the “sectional coaching sessions” which is supported financially by the above mentioned grants. I have to stop here only because I could use a whole page to mention and thank all of the volunteers. (One exception, thanks to Peter Hill for “Hi Notes”)

Music Director's Message (continued)

A lot of preparation work has been done and is being done for September and for the season. The DVO is blessed with an excellent board and executive whose work is making the orchestra's season more exciting and rewarding for orchestra members and audiences. Soon it will be time to reap the rewards of all the effort and make some beautiful music. See you soon!

November 6 concert - breaking news!

As you know, we are performing a “Spotlight on Dundas” program on Sunday, November 6. One of the pieces is the “Toy Symphony” by Haydn (though some dispute this authorship). It has become a tradition that notable invited guests play toy instruments and invites have gone out. At the time of writing, Peter Banting of the HAALSA and leader of the Peter Banting Swingtet, has agreed to play. Stay tuned for the names of more guest players! Invited guests will be at our November 1 rehearsal.

DVO 40th Anniversary coming up!

Planning has started to celebrate our 40th Anniversary!

The DVO was founded in 1978 and our Board has decided that we shall make our 2018-2019 our year of celebration. Something historical will be featured at every concert during that season. Do you have any ideas? If so, speak to a member of the Board as soon as possible.

Fundraiser News

Our Fundraiser held on June 12 was very successful by all reports. Treasurer Alicia Hutchings reported proceeds of $1,345. Thanks go to all the volunteers who helped, especially to Alicia who headed the effort..

Raspberry, Pickles and Ham performed

Here's a report from Olga Hencher regarding their group "Raspberry, Pickles and Ham," formed by DVO players for the summer, which played at the Extencicare Nursing Home for the residents on July 12, 2016.

"We were well received at the Extencicare Nursing Home and got invited back. We had 60 in the audience – residents, family, and staff. We played fiddle tunes, sing-along songs and told jokes and we had a great time! The players included Darwin, Christine, Suzanne, Rudin, Dorothy, and Marg Jamieson, with Arthur (Hencher) on banjo and Marie from Brantford on the piano and, of course, myself. We were awesome! We have two more places to go: Caroline Place Retirement Residence on July 26 and at the Willowgrove Retirement Home on August 9."

Anecdotes of Great Musicians

Unlucky manuscripts

Some of the original manuscripts of valuable compositions have occasionally found strange resting places and been put to unforeseen uses. We have read of how Beethoven's cook used some of his precious leaves in kindling a fire and in wrapping up old pots and kettles; how the original pages of some priceless works of Bach were used by an ignorant gardener to tie round some young apple trees, thus to preserve them from harm; and how many of Schubert's beautiful melodies lay for years in garrets and in out-of-the-way corners, until resurrected by Schumann and other enthusiasts.

But perhaps the worst misfortune that ever happened to a composer in this line, fell upon Rinaldo di Capua, said to be the originator of the "recitative." Whether this honor justly belongs to him or not is, however, uncertain. Be that as it may, he was an excellent and industrious writer, and accumulated during his years of composition a goodly number of scores.

In his old age, feeling the need of the money they would bring from the publisher, he searched for them, but could find them nowhere. Further inquiries pointed to the probability that a profligate son, who had been the apple of the old man's eye, so to speak, had disposed of this valuable pile of manuscripts to a dealer in waste paper!
